

Food Networks

Regional Food Networks create vibrant relationships:

Between farmers, community, manufactories, shops, gastronomy

Between rural and urban areas

Between research, politics and industry

Food as Collaborative Commons:

From value chains to lively food networks

From regenerative agriculture to social gastronomy

From community farming to social entrepreneurship

Locally anchored, globally connected:

Inviting to round-tables

Seeding and co-creating new Food networks

Connecting existing initiatives

Food Networks

☑ Become a Foodnetworker: CHF 5'000,-. With your financial support we can further develop the local work in the Food Networks, ensure learning between the initiatives and further explore the idea of the Food Networks as a sustainable food system. Foodnetworkers are invited to visit our local food networks and contribute to the content. Every year we invite to a culinary evening with exchange of experience and expertise.

☑ Become a member of Food Networks: Individual members CHF 100,-, companies CHF 600,-. Be part of a growing community for a sustainable and meaningful food system. You get access to information about exciting developments and tasty food from the Food Networks in Switzerland, Nepal, Portugal, Kosovo and more.

☑ Contributing to Food Networks: Your time and effort are welcome. As a contributor, you can make a meaningful contribution to building up the Food Networks communities, to building up the distribution of food products from the Food Networks in Switzerland or in Europe. You can gain local experience in the Food Networks and actively participate in volunteering.
